PROJECTS

Stephans-Astrology

- This was built as a business website with the goal of helping anyone including business owners elevate their life and/or business to the next level using my expertise in astrology and understanding of the universe.
- Made using Html, CSS, and Javascript

Stephans-Real Estate

- This website was built in order to make it easy for real estate clients to find and work with me as their real estate agent.
- Made using Html, CSS, Javascript, and GSAP.

Luscious Eatery

- This website was inspired by a local restaurant that I noticed didn't have a website. I built this with the idea of presenting them my product and giving them a visual of what a website could do for their business.
- Made using Html, CSS, and Javascript.
